THIS SCHOOL PROMOTES GENDER EQUALITY

Here, all children regardless of their sex and gender learn and develop optimally because:

They participate in a variety of learning and play activities

Their teachers make them feel safe and supported

They receive encouragement to try different things and interact with others

Our gender responsive approach will help your child to:

Develop good social skills

Develop critical thinking

Practice creativity

Develop a healthy self-esteem

At our school, children learn not to place limits on themselves and what they can achieve.
